Form M

Feature

How many times did your employees turn punch cards back and forth because inserting the wrong side or to see punch records on the other side of the card? No need to check the back side of cards using the Z120 with our new monthly time card "Form M". See whole records of the work period at a single glance. The monthly time card "Form M" saves cost and offers ease of use.

Secure settings by physical key, password lock and button cell battery. Keeps your time recorder's settings safe.

No complicated settings to make. If you need simple time records of employee's attendance and break times, the Z120 is your favorite choice. Make your settings for time and pay period. That is all. Then record 6 columns per day right away.
